12. [] LIAISON After coordinating with [] Office of Public Affairs, called Jerry Landauer, Wall Street Journal, to close out his call to me on 10 May 1977. I told him that I had reviewed the material in question and believed that its exemption under the Freedom of Information Act is appropriate. Landauer is still of the opinion that there has been nefarious lash-up between CIA and U.S. corporations abroad and I told him that I was quite sure that there were certain statements in the public record and I would be glad to see that he gets the citation and he said he would appreciate this very much. I again told Landauer his point of contact within the Agency should be Herb Hetu, Office of Public Affairs.

13. [] LIAISON Mike Maloof, in the office of Senator Robert Griffin (R., Mich.), called to request additional information regarding Cuba, particularly which countries are suppliers of food and medicine, and the degree to which the Soviets ship or pay for these items. He also wanted to know the role of U.S. subsidiaries in such trade and I told him this really wasn't our business and he understood.
